2021 WLYC NEW MEMBER APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in the Wequaquet Lake Yacht Club (WLYC). We only offer probationary regular memberships to new members. This membership is extended to the applicant, his/her spouse or partner, and any children 25 years of age or younger who are living at home. The first year of the regular membership is considered a probationary year. The Membership Committee and the Board of Directors review each regular membership at the end of the first season to determine if a permanent regular membership will be extended to the applicant.

WLYC is a private club and membership is limited by our by-laws to 110 families. The Club facilities are generally open from mid-June until Labor Day. Club activities including children's swimming and sailing lessons, adult sailing, and social activities for adults and children. The members organize, run, and participate in all the programs and committees, as well as assist with building maintenance. Your participation is encouraged and required for the Club to prosper.
